

Cookies Policy

I. Information notice about cookies.

1. The website uses cookies.
2. Cookies are IT data, in particular text files which are stored in the final device of the Website User and are designed to use the Website pages. Cookies usually contain the name of the website from which they originate, the duration of storing them on the end device and a unique number.
3. The entity placing cookies on the end device of the Website User and obtaining access to them is the Website Operator.
4. Cookies are used for the following purposes:
 - a. create statistics that help to understand how Website Users use the pages to improve their structure and content;
 - b. maintaining the Website User session (after logging in) so that the User does not have to re-enter their login and password on each page of the Website;
 - c. specifying the user's profile for displaying customized content on advertising networks, Google in particular.
5. The Website uses two basic types of cookies: session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies are temporary files stored on your end device until you log out, leave the website or turn off the software (browser). Persistent cookies are stored in the User's end device for the time specified in the parameters of cookies or until they are deleted by the User.
6. Web browsing software usually by default allows to store cookies in the user's end device. Website Users may change their settings for this. Your web browser allows you to delete cookies. It is also possible to automatically block cookies. For details, see your browser's help or documentation.
7. Restrictions on the use of cookies may affect some features available on the Website.
8. Cookies placed in the end device of the Website User may also be used by advertisers and partners cooperating with the Website operator.
9. We recommend that you read these companies' privacy policies to learn about the cookies used in the statistics: Google Analytics Privacy Policy
10. Cookies may be used by advertising networks, in particular by Google network, to display ads tailored to the way the user uses the Website. For this purpose, they may retain information about the user's navigation path or time spent on a page.
11. As regards information on user preferences collected by Google advertising network, the user can view and edit information resulting from cookies using the tool: <https://www.google.com/ads/preferences/>

II. Server logs.

1. Information about certain user behaviour is logged into the server layer. These data are used solely for the purpose of administering the website and to ensure the most efficient hosting services.
